GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

Although the 60,000-tonne Greek-managed ARAMIS was released last week to discharge its 350,000 barrels of crude picked up in Ecuador, the ship was on its way back to San Francisco yesterday to help US authorities with their investigation, shipping newspaper Lloyds List said. The drugs, which have an estimated street value of $20-$25 million, were discovered in the rudder of the ARAMIS on July 21 but the find was not publicised until this week. US authorities said it was the biggest drugs bust in a decade.
