MOL says that it is starting a new intra-Asia liner service, linking Thailand to Vietnam, Hong Kong and China in response to rising demand in the regional container shipping market.

The new service will deploy two containerships under a space charter agreement with Singapore-based RCL Feeder Pte Ltd.

The port rotation for the fixed-day service will be: Bangkok (Sun/Mon), Laem Chabang (Mon/Mon), Ho Chi Minh (Wed/Thu), Hong Kong (Sat/Sun), Shekou (Sun/Mon), Hong Kong (Mon/Mon), Ho Chi Minh (Thu/Fri), and back to Bangkok (Sun/Mon).

The inaugural voyage will be undertaken by the CHANA BHUM that is scheduled to arrive in Bangkok on May 15.
