GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

BRAZILIAN shipping company Docenave has declined to confirm a report that it is planning to sell its remaining bulkers in coming months. Brazil Folha publication says the three ships DOCEBAY, DOCERIVER and DOCECAPE will be placed on the market at the start of 2004, but the company would only tell Fairplay: "Docenave is still operating with the three remaining vessels." The CVRD subsidiary has been selling down its fleet and increasing charters as it focuses on being an operator and logistics specialist.
