GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

1997: Australian Petroleum Pty Ltd, the Ampol and Caltex partnership, finally confirmed that it will sell its tanker-owning operation, Australian Tankships Pty Ltd, to Teekay Shipping Corp of Canada. Under the deal, Teekay will take on the 1989-built, 32,000-dwt product tanker BARRINGTON (EX-AUSTRALIA SKY) at USD 18m, and the 1990-built, 37,700-dwt PALMERSTON (EX-AMPOL TVA) at USD 19.5m.

2009: Weeks after Teekay Corp said a 20-year-old tanker was nearing the end of its operational life, the company has reportedly sold the ship. Numerous brokers report that the Vancouver-based tanker owner has sold the 33,200-dwt products tanker BARRINGTON (EX-AUSTRALIA SKY, built 1989). The handysize vessel has gone to an undisclosed buyer for $5.1m. A Teekay spokesman declined to comment other than to say that the vessel returned to the fleet when it recently came off time-charter. The BARRINGTON has been renamed the GALAXY and is controlled by Glory Shipmanagement of Singapore, according to ship databases. The handysize vessel had been on charter to Caltex, but at the end of the contract, Teekay said the ship would be replaced in a renewed charter by the 40,000-dwt ALEXANDER SPIRIT (built 2007) because the 20-year-old BARRINGTON was at the end of its useful lifespan.
