GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

2011: Maersk Line has taken in charge the MAERSK EUBANK, third of five 13,092 teu units chartered in February 2010 from UK-based Zodiac Maritime, which ordered them speculatively at Hyundai-Samho in August 2007. The MAERSK EUBANK is to join Maersk Line's Far East- Europe AE-10 service in its revised version. (Source: Alphaliner weekly newsletter 10/2010 & 15/2011)

2013: The two sons of the late Sammy Ofer are forging ahead with the transfer of a part of their containership fleet from London-based Zodiac Maritime Agencies, controlled by Eyal Ofer, to Singapore-based Tanker Pacific, controlled by brother Idan Ofer. Among the ships transferred are the 13,092 teu MAERSK EUBANK, on charter to Maersk Line until early 2014.

2014: The Danish operator (Maersk) remains keen on larger ships and has taken on extension five 13,000-teu vessels owned by UK-based Zodiac Maritime Agencies and three by Singapore-based Eastern Pacific Shipping. The vessels include the MAERSK EDISON, CMA CGM ERVING, MAERSK EUBANK, CMA CGM ENFIELD and CMA CGM EFFINGHAM (all built 2011).

Charter details are unclear but market rates for ships of this size are said to be above $50,000 per day, albeit lower than two-year options of $65,000 that the Danish charterer negotiated on the giant boxships three years ago, brokers say.
