GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

2001: Reederei Nord of Cyprus has reportedly sold two 1,388-teu containerships to Briese Schiffahrts of Germany.

The 1993-built NORDWELLE and NORDWOGGE reportedly fetched $27m en bloc. The deal includes two two-and-a-half-year charters back to Oldendorff at $10,800 per day.

2015: Myanmar owner Continental Investment Holdings (CIH) is reported to have bought the 1,388 teu sister vessels ULSNIS and RINKENIS from Germany's Briese Schiffahrt.

Both vessels have been on charter to MSC until recently, with the RINKENIS still named MSC EQUATOR.

These ships were built by Germany's Kvaerner Warnow shipyard in Warnemunde in 1993 for Reederei 'Nord' (Klaus Oldendorff) as the NORDWOGGE and NORDWELLE.

They belong to the 'CS 1400' series, a popular design of which 17 units were built from 1992 to 1995, mostly for operation on the tramp container market. In July 2001 'Nord' sold the pair to Briese Schiffahrt with a 30 months charter attached. They continued to be operated on the tramp market.
