GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

In another incident this time off Durban two ships at anchor in the Durban anchorage collided during a period of strong winds last week. The two ships As Salaam and OCEAN NEPTUNE had been waiting for a berth in the port at the time there were more than 20 ships at anchor outside and the anchorage was somewhat crowded. One of the vessels began dragging its anchors and drifted down on the other. As Salaam suffered a gash above the waterline and the Ocean Neptune a bent anchor shank. There were no injuries on board either vessel.
