Commerzbank seals sale of nine container vessels

Germany's Commerzbank has concluded an agreement with the owners of nine container vessels of 1,100 to 2,500 teu, all co-financed by the bank, to sell the ships to Embarcadero Maritime, a joint venture founded in 2013 by Borealis Maritime (UK) and KKR Special Situations Group of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co (USA). All of the ships are charter market units, initially financed through KGs. The proceeds from the sale will be utilised by Commerzbank for the redemption of loans with a total volume of approximately €160 M ($ 216 M).

The sale is aimed at reducing the banks' non-performing shipping loans. Commerzbank had sold in December 2013 a credit portfolio comprising 14 chemical tankers.

Borealis and KKR set up in 2013 Embarcadero Maritime to invest in distressed shipping assets.

The nine containerships involved in the deal with Commerzbank are :

The 1,841 teu pair SAN ANDRES and SAN PALLISER (Hyundai 1800) controlled by UK-based Borealis Maritime have reportedly been sold to Greek owner Conbulk Shipping S.A. at an undisclosed price.

The SAN ANDRES is currently performing a charter for the Great White Fleet (GWF – shipping arm of the Chiquita Group) while the SAN PALLISER is operated by fruit exporter Agriex. Both are deployed between Central America and the US.

The SAN ANDRES and SAN PALLISER were built in 2007-2008 by the Hyundai Mipo dockyard in South Korea originally for Hamburg-based CP Offen. They feature a deadweight of 28,300 tons, a Loa of 186 metres and a beam of 27.60 metres. They are equipped with three cranes of 45 tons and are fitted with 450 reefer plugs.
