Shanghai CP International takes MPP pair

📅 SEPTEMBER 10TH, 2018

HANS THAULOW

DRY CARGO, GREATER CHINA

Low key player Shanghai CP International continues to add ships in various segments. This week the twelve-ship strong outfit emerged as the taker of a pair of multipurpose vessels, the 33,200 dwt San Marino Trader (built 2010) and the one year older Lisbon Trader. A price of $11m is reported for the first of the ships, while the slightly older vessel fetched $10.8m. The ships used to belong to German KG, Hermann Buss.

Brokers note that the San Marino Trader purchase appears firm, comparing the deal to the recent sale of a Lauritzen ship, the 2010-built Signe Bulker that fetched $ 9.6m, significantly less than the San Marino Trader.
