GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

Jamaica's flag is flying high in China with the launch of two new container ships that will operate in the Chinese coastal trade. Jamaican ambassador to China, His Excellency Wayne McCook and Calvin Chen, deputy registrar for China, are pictured beside one of the new Jamaican registered ships: the newly named, 7,545 gross ton container ship CCL MOJI (EX-PANJANG).

The CCL MOJI and its sister ship the CCL OSAKA were launched in a ceremony at China's Mawei shipyard in Fuzhou.

The container ship is the first of two new vessels, built in China which will be registered in Jamaica this year. With Jamaica's comparatively small ship registry, this adds to the registry's recognition and revenue earnings.

The M/V PANJANG will soon be renamed the M/V CCL MOJI and will operate in the Chinese coastal trade.
