GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

1976: Delivered to J. Gähns & W. Harms KG, Germany

1996: Purchased by G.A. Görke, Germany from Dutch interests

2003: Sold to Lithuanian interests. Renamed SEA FOX (in service for shipment of timber).

2004: Vessel had suffered engine room fire as SEA FOX and was towed into Falmouth that time.

2005: Developed a list to port of more than 35° in a severe gale 6/1/2005 when in position 56.28N, 07.24W. The list subsequently increased to over 50 and some of the deck cargo was jettisoned. The Barra lifeboat was launched and she was escorted into Castlebay. She was on passage from Riga for Liverpool with timber.

Further main engine problems on 24/6/2005 resulted in her drifting in position 57.13N, 06.35W. It was possible to use the engine only for short periods and tug assistance was requested. She was taken in tow and arrived Liverpool 29/6/2005. She was on a passage from Riga for Liverpool with timber.
