GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

Established in 1994, SHANGHAI ANSHENG AUTOMOTIVE SHIPPING CO., LTD, is a share-issuing enterprise under the holding of Anji Automotive Logistics Co., Ltd. It is the only pure car roll-roll transport company in China, which is mainly engaged in water liner ship transport. It can offer door-to-door third-party logistics service to customers by its routes covering every coastal port and every port along the line of Changjiang River in China.

It has been equipped with six seagoing vessels and three river vessels with annual full-load transport capacity of more than 100,000 units; It has owned its own water terminal in Shanghai, and warehouses for vehicles in every main coastal port and all ports along the line of Changjiang River in China. In the meanwhile, it makes a long-term cooperation with local cooperative feeder companies, which are able to transport vehicles to all parts of China.
