MSC continues phenomenal buying spree – purchases nine more vessels

When will MSC stop buying secondhand ships? Probably not as long as the charter market will continue to sky-rocket, and despite the fast-rising asset prices! The Geneva-based carrier has now added another nine container vessels to its stable in the last days.

With these nine further acquisitions, the number of second-hand container vessels bought by MSC since it embarked on this historic buying spree in August 2020 now reaches 70 units.
