The PIONEER ALBATROS, first unit of the new Sietas 'Typ 169' design (735 teu), was delivered in early May, to German owner Quadrant Bereederung. She left the shipyard as the GRACECHURCH STAR, on a charter to Borchard/Gracechurch Lines. She joined this company's Irish Sea-Med service (9416), replacing her namesake, a 538 teu 'Sietas Typ 148' design, who has now been renamed GERDIA, her original 'owner' name, and is joining Sea Consortium. A second unit will be delivered in June, the PIONEER EAGLE, who is also to join Borchard as the GRACECHURCH METEOR.
