Grounding off Skye. The 'Kaami' ran aground on March 23, 2020, at 1.50 a.m. about six miles north-west of Skye in pos. 57° 47.40' N 006° 28.13' W. The six Russian crew members were rescued by the Stornoway Coastguard helicopter. The RNLI boat from Portree, the Coastguard tug 'Ievoli Black' and the Northern Lighthouse Board vessel 'Pharos' which was in the area also went to the scene. The crew members were flown to Stornoway on Lewis and were safe and well. The weather conditions were challenging with high seas at the time of the rescue. The 'Kaami' was enroute from Belfast to Slite at the time of the accident. Bron: Vesseltracker.com
